Why do people have pets?

Many people on the Earth keep pets. But, is it good or bad.

In my opinion ~~having~~ pets has more advantages, than ~~disadvantages~~ disadvantages.

Firstly, pets, especially dogs, can be good companions, they can defend you from some dangers, if you keep a cat you would be less stressed because they can purr and their fur is fluffy. Secondly, keeping exotic pets is becoming more and more popular, because they are expensive and can prove people, that you are rich. Thirdly you can improve your health by walking with the dog or with the cat. In conclusion, I think having pets has more advantages, than disadvantages because, if you keep a pet, you will be more careful and kind.
