Once upon a time there were four little Rabbits, and their names were— Flopsy, Mopsy, Cotton-tail, and Peter. They lived with their Mother in a sand-bank, underneath the root of a very big fir tree.

"Now, my dears," said old Mrs. Rabbit one morning, "you may go into the fields or down the lane, but don't go into Mr. McGregor's garden: your Father had an accident there; he was put in a pie by Mrs. McGregor."

"Now run along, and don't get into mischief. I am going out."

Then old Mrs. Rabbit took a basket and her umbrella, to the baker's. She bought a loaf of brown bread and five currant buns.

Flopsy, Mopsy, and Cottontail, who were good little bunnies, went down the lane to gather blackberries; but Peter, who was very naughty, ran straight away to Mr. McGregor's garden and squeezed under the gate! First, he ate some lettuces and some French beans; and then he ate some radishes; and then, feeling rather sick, he went to look for some parsley.

Why do people have pets? Give examples

Why do people have pets? (ex5)

Some animals became pets many years ago. They helped at work. Now most of people live in big cities and don't work in fields or hunt in forests. So why do we have pets? For what? Most of the population thinks, that pets are very good friends - we can love them more, than people. Pets can be like medicine for a person, who doesn't know what to do and how to live in this huge world. Pets can be like a life lesson for children - they can learn what is independence and responsibility. Lots of people have pets, even celebrities. For example: my favourite singer Katty Perry has a puddle (a dog).

Of course, I have pets, too: a hamster and a bird. They are my good friends and I love them so much.
