Why do people have pets?

People like keep animals in their house.
But why?

Firstly pets giving us good feelings and emotions. We like when somebody loves us and waits at home. Another people have pets for safety for example: security dogs. Some of us like exotic and keep at home tigers, snakes, tarantulas and another unusual animals. I think this is dangerous. Pets are necessary for people which can't see. Detectives use dogs for searching. People use pets for earn money. For example: circuses animals. I think this is not good. Women use decorative pets for looking beautifully. Animals are the main transport in the past and in some countries now. For example: horses, donkeys, elephants and dogs.

We use animals for many purposes. They stay necessary and useful in modern world. We should love and thanks them.
