Most of people keep animals at home. Somebody keeps dogs and cats. Somebody keeps birds and somebody has such pets as aquarium fish or even crocodiles, monkeys, bears and so on.

For some people it is a way to avoid loneliness, for other people it is a kind of fun. People who keep animals at home just love animals and need a pet to share their life. Pets always make the life of people better and happier. People are very fond of their pets. They may pay a lot of attention to them and they have to feed them and visit veterinarian.

It is important to understand that pets at home are living beings they are not toys. If you are good friend for a pet, your pet will be a friend for you.
