The best place I've ever been to

It goes without saying that all the people have the best place they have ever been to. Somebody loves city centers and crowded places, while the others love places that are close to the nature.

The best place I have ever visited was Croatia. Firstly, there was awesome nature that was rich in the sea, forests, mountains and hills. The Adriatic sea was very clean. There was no trash at all!

I was admiring great mountains and green forests. The air was very fresh.

Secondly, everybody who I met in Croatia was very polite. In my opinion, people were friendly and considerate.

Thirdly, I ate delicious food. For example, you could eat fish, meat, beans and vegetables made in a special dish every day.

However, some people thought that the Adriatic sea was too cold for them. Of course, the water might be cold.

There is a simple reason for that. In my experience, the clean water could be only in the cold reservoir.

All in all, I still strongly believe that Croatia was an interesting place to visit with good facilities. However, other people could prefer cities with many attractions to peaceful nature.
