I think that travelling is very fun and interesting for me. I have visited a lot of places around my country. But today I would like to tell you about the best place I've ever seen to.

Last year we went to Saint Petersburg. It was autumn holidays. We spent there 4 days. It was my first visit there. Since then, I fell in love with this wonderful city.

The first thing I was amazed it is unique architecture. There are a lot of unusual and picturesque buildings of different ^{historical} periods. The second thing I was impressed was bridges. They are really magnificent.

We had a lot of excursions and visited great amount of exhibitions but Winter Palace and Nikolaevskiy Palace are kept in my mind.

In spite of bad weather we could visit Tsarskoe Selo and Peterhof. There were a lot of gardens and fountains. I've learned a lot about the greatest person of this city - Peter the Great, who ruled the country in the 17th - 18th centuries.

Unfortunately, we didn't see the famous White Nights of Saint Petersburg as it was autumn. But I'm sure that is a good reason to visit this wonderful place one more time.
