I really like travelling, when I travel I improve my knowledge with new things and interesting information. I have been to a lot of beautiful places, but my favourite is a small town in Germany near München called Bad Schussenried. The first time I have been there was ✓ 2017, I have spent there 3 weeks by learning German language. I could learn it in München, in Berlin and other big towns, but every summer I go only there. I have pair of arguments to explain my choice. The first one is a nature. There is the most beautiful nature I have ever seen. violet sunsets, green grass, a lot of fields, fresh air. I feel ~~happy~~ ^{calm} there. In the evenings I went to go for a walk with my friends or alone to breathe fresh air before the sleeping.

And the second reason is freedom, because in big towns your mind is always full of ~~thoughts~~ thoughts about bad or good things. You also have no permissions and ~~unpermissions~~ things that you are allowed to do or don't allowed. You clean your mind from all your problems and get freedom to relax.

I really love this place, I believe it was the best place I have ever been to and I really want to arrive there!
