④ The best place I've ever been to.

There are a lot of people on the Earth who really enjoy travelling. I am one of them. I can't say that I travel very often but every my trip is wonderful and inspiring.

About a half of year ago I have been to Vietnam. I really felt in love with this country. But one place I have visited in Vietnam was special. That was Vinpearl.

Vinpearl is the most interesting place I've ever been to. It consists of different districts: many swimming pools for people of different ages, beautiful hotel, amazing nature's locations, for example a bird's location with different kinds of exotic birds inside, locations of rare plants. One of the most awesome location is the dolphin's area, where you can see ~~show~~ interesting show with the dolphins or take a picture with this animals. I can't name every location which are in Vinpearl because it will take too many words but all locations I've just called are only the small part of Vinpearl.

I think that Vinpearl is the best place I've ever been to. If you are going to visit Vietnam, you should go to Vinpearl. It worths it!
